

Quiz Questions for Q & A for General Use:

1. I can legally scan a photo from a book and use it in my PowerPoint slides. T
2. I can't legally scan a photo from a book and use it in my PowerPoint slides. F
3. I can't legally copy any part of a text book for use in my class. F
4. I can copy a single chapter of a textbook for my own use. T
5. Copying more than one tenth of a publication is illegal. T
6. Internet access to library materials is legal for students and faculty. T
7. Although I do not have permission to use the copyrighted materials in my report, it is legal to use them once before I obtain written permission from the publisher. T
8. If I remove all references to the copyright holder from the materials it is legal to use it. F
9. Everything has an implied copyright. T
10. If the publisher or artist is dead and the heirs can't be found its alright to use this material. F
11. If a picture on a website doesn't have a copyright notice it is legal to use this material. F
12. It is legal for me to send copies of my class materials to my friends so they can know what am learning. F
13. It is illegal to make backup copies of software stored on your hard drive. F
14. It is legal to make backup copies of files you have authored on your hard drive. T
15. It is illegal to copy data from my laptop to my desktop computer. F
16. It is legal to send copies of cute cartoons from the newspaper to my classmates. F
17. No one can make me break the copyright law because they say "it is my job" to do it. T
18. If I make copies of copyrighted material and give them to others no one will know and no one will get in trouble. F
19. If our print shop will not print something because of copyright I can just find one that will and that will be legal F
20. The university will be legally liable for any action that I take while on the job. T